

Concord October 17th
1872.

Dear Miss Chaniter.

I am to meet a Select company of young ladies at Mrs Mannings 128 Beacon Street on Tuesday next at 11.30 A.M.
Miss Manning and her friend Miss Howe (a niece of Julia Ward) passed yesterday here with us, and arranged with May for the Convocation.

The Company is invited by the two. The hour named for meeting was thought most convenient for most. It will give them much pleasure if your engagements permit your attendance.

Now I add that I shall be delighted to find you one of the circle?

Certainly I could not deny myself this opportunity of expressing my hope that either there, or at some other place I might see your face before having lost the West.

Our Sonja informed you of her winter quarters.

Affectionately yours,

A. Bronson Alcott

Mrs. J. S. C.
